Appointment of Wards of Deceased Government Servants on Compassionate Grounds

1457. SHRI KAMAL MORARKA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the age for appointment on compassionate grounds of the wards of deceased Government Servants has been increased from 14 years to 18 years; and

(b) if so, whether Government propose to reduce the age for appointment in such cases as it was in the past to mitigate the miseries likely to be caused to the bereaved families as results of the increase?

THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRI VISHWANATH PRATAP SINGH): (a) and (b) Prior to 17-2-88, the lower age-limit of 18 years for entry into Government was relaxable up to 14 years in cases of appointments on compassionate grounds. On 17-2-88 orders were issued to the effect that persons below the age of 18 years should not be considered for such appointments and that if the only person available for employment is a ward below 18 years, he should apply for a job as soon as he attains the age of 18 years. There is no proposal to modify these orders.
